TBIC President's Corner by Doug Smaus

Doug With Jana and Tony, Our TBIC Game Watch Hosts at Boston's

The year kicked off with a great Outback Bowl. The Hawkeye Happy Hours, game watches, picnics, Big East/ Big Ten Baseball, etc. that followed have all been well attended and great fun.

treated us so well this game watch year. Their hard work and dedication to provide us with outstanding service is most appreciated.

Enjoy this issue and I look forward to meeting you in the near future.

The Hawkeyes are 10-2 and Bowl Bound!

Hello to all of you in the Tampa Bay Iowa Club.

TBIC is your Club and the Board's 2010 goal is to continue to improve our activities for all of you.

This is our last Connection issue for 2009 and I wish you and your family holiday wishes. May your 2010 be the best!

I want to give our special thanks to Tony, Jana and the Boston's staff that have

Hawkeye Insider – Leslie Faber

Leslie Faber

Leslie Faber was raised in Wheaton, IL and attended Glenbard South High School (Go Raiders!). While in high school, Leslie played volleyball, softball and was a cheerleader before graduating in 2000.

University. She graduated with a bachelor's degree from Illinois State University in Business Administration and a minor in Insurance in 2004.

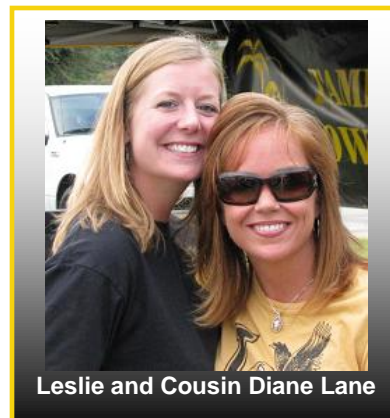

Northern Trust since moving here in October of 2007. She couldn't handle the Chicago winters and absolutely loves Florida's climate.

While in her formative years at Illinois State University, she traveled to Iowa City almost every weekend. Her oldest brother as well as several good friends from home went to school at Iowa. In addition to the "black and gold cultural experience" that Iowa City offered, her father's entire family lives in Iowa. She spent many weekends and holidays in Hawkeye-country while growing up.

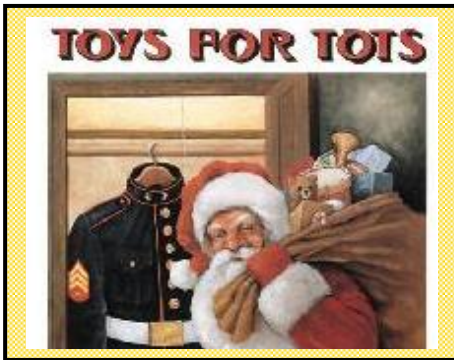

Leslie has been affiliated with TBIC since she moved, to the Tampa Bay area. She was introduced to TBIC by her cousin, Board Member Diane Lane – "it's a family affair." ↓

Leslie attended classes at College of DuPage during the summer of 2000 before matriculating at Illinois State

Leslie has been employed at Northern Trust for two years as an assistant relationship manager, administering trust accounts. She has been with it was very loud and crazy and everyone had BIG energy.

The Hawkeyes ended the season at 10-2 and are currently ranked 9th in both the BCS and AP polls! The overtime loss to Ohio State put the Hawks out of the running for a Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl but they will again end the season with a January game.

The three game watches in November were well attended (in the 80s each weekend). At times

For his record breaking coaching successes this year, Kirk Ferentz has been named the Dave McClain Coach of the Year in the Big Ten. This is the third time he has earned this award and only the fourth coach to win it three times (for more details: Coach Ferentz Big Ten Coach of the Year).

The bowl game selections will be announced on Dec. 6th. Make sure you have your checks in for the Cap One and Outback Bowl.
